

Payment Information and Fees

KYORIN-FLY outsources the stock order confirmation process and the online payment system to the Bio-Resource Payment (BRP) at the Science Education Laboratory.

We only accept credit card: Visa, MasterCard. We provide the online credit card payment system through a cryptographically protected connection, SSL (Secure Socket Layer) which secures your credit card information.

Your credit card information is not transmitted to KYORIN-FLY. If you have a payment problem please contact your credit card company.

Your credit card will not be charged until your order is shipped.

The fly stocks are delivered by Express Mail Service (EMS), a traceable courier service to some countries, offered by Japan Post Service Co., Ltd. You can track your shipment with EMS Item number or EMS Tracking number. EMS provides a significantly fast and safe delivery.
