

Drosophila (Sophophora) bifasciata* Pomini, 1940

Diagnosis. Male, fore tarsomeres I and II each with short, oblique sex comb on distal portion; all tarsomeres IV and/or V darker; abdominal sternite V longer than wide in both of male and female; scutum with more or less pale, median, longitudinal line; median piece of subepandrial sclerite narrowing dorsally; hypogynial, anteroventral bridge long.

