

Drosophila (Siphlodora) lacertosa* Okada, 1956

Diagnosis. Abdominal tergites each with dark brown, caudal band medially interrupted; $0.50 < \text{C3F-index} \leq 0.75$; cercus fused to epandrium; epandrial, ventral lobe concave on anterior margin; phallus serrated on ventrodistal margins, with a pair of triangular flaps on ventromedial margins; spermathecal capsule 1.5 times as long as wide, apically indented, strongly constricted near base, with stout warts on distal portion of outer surface.

